

The Constitution and Bylaws

Of the Eden Teachers' Association

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I Name

The name of this association shall be the Eden Teachers' Association (ETA), Local No. 2627.

ARTICLE II Affiliation

The Eden Teachers' Association, Local No. 2627 shall be associated with the New York State United Teachers and its National affiliates. (NYSUT, NEA, AFT, AFL-CIO).

ARTICLE III Code of Ethics

The Eden Teachers' Association recognizes the impact we as educators have on our students. We shall strive at all times to maintain the highest level of instruction, including assessment, evaluation and instructional planning. As educators, we will maintain an instructional environment that is conducive to learning. We will strive to improve professional awareness, knowledge, and competence. We shall provide a safe and comfortable area for our classes, and work to provide an empowering and supportive environment for students. We will diligently strive to maintain the integrity of all testing media and grading. We shall provide professional educational services in a nondiscriminatory manner, respectful of the dignity of each individual regardless of gender, race, religion, or national sign.

As a unionized association, we recognize our impact on students and coworkers as role models. The Eden Teachers' Association shall conduct business in an ethical manner regardless of whether we are dealing with, members, administration, the school board, or the public. We shall strive at all times to maintain the highest level of ethical integrity in our union procedures and activities. The officers will make every effort to remain abreast of changes in education and educational law and assist our members whenever and wherever needed.

Each member is entitled to full freedom of speech and the right to participate in the democratic decisions of the Union. Subject to rules and regulations set forth in this Constitution & Bylaws, each member shall have the right to run for office, to nominate and to vote in free, fair and honest elections. Membership meetings shall be held regularly, with proper notice of time and place and shall be conducted in an atmosphere of fairness. All Union rules and laws must be fairly and uniformly applied. All members are invited to have a voice in the association and will be treated in an ethical manner.
